

Prayer Guide for MorganField Building Project

...if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.’¹¹ Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success...” (Nehemiah 1:9, 11)

Pray for God to grant us favor with people.

Architects, inspectors, city officials, developers, etc.

We need to remember that God is sovereign over mankind.

“The king’s heart is a stream of water in the hand of the Lord; he turns it wherever he will.” (Proverbs 21:1)

“In order that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the Lord stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a herald throughout all his kingdom, and also in a written edict declared: The heads of the families of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites—everyone whose spirit God had stirred—got ready to go up and rebuild the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.” (Ezra 1:1,5)

“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone,² for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.³ This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior,⁴ who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.” (1 Timothy 2:1-4)

Pray for God’s provision.

We are asking that God stir the hearts of the people to give sacrificially.

We are asking that God would provide the funds and the help needed to complete and prosper this project.

‘For even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me help for my needs more than once.¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the profit that accumulates to your account.¹⁸ I have been paid in full and have more than enough; I am fully satisfied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent, a fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God.¹⁹ And my God will fully satisfy every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.’ (Philippians 4:16-19)

Pray for our unity.

The last thing that we want is for our church to be in disunity. The enemy is always looking for ways to cause us to disrupt our harmony. Paul was always praying for the unity of the church.

“May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, ⁶ so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.”
(Romans 15:5-6)

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³ making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.” (Ephesians 4:1-3)

“I ask ... on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, ²¹ that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.” (John 17:21)

Pray for God’s guidance.

Pray for seeking to be pleasing to God and trusting His Spirit’s leadership, as well as praying for patience in waiting on the Lord’s timing.

“For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God’s will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding...” (Colossians 1:9)

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding. ⁶ In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.”
(Proverbs 3:5-6)

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.’” (Luke 10:2)

“The human mind plans the way, but the Lord directs the steps.” (Psalm 16:9)
